Hon. Commissioner of Patents
Post Office Box 1450

Dear Sir:

In response to the Office Action mailed the 10th of December, 2007, kindly enter the following amendments, in consideration of the remarks likewise offered for consideration herein, which are believed to place this matter in a condition for allowance, or to preserve the record for appeal. No new issues or matters are presented, and it is respectfully proposed that allowance (in whole or in part) or an Ex Parte Quayle action is appropriate. Such relief is hereby earnestly solicited.

The amendments to the claims begin on page 3, and the remarks on page 6. Passage to allowance on an expedited basis, as suggested by the Petition to Make Special, is appropriate and hereby expressly requested.
